

62

stores had extra sales clerks on hand
a typical scene on Canal st.

Gets Rusk

police were hired as guards. The house, on the 10th floor, was a two-story walk-up at the end of the block. The establishment included four cars, a swimming pool and greenhouse, tennis courts and a staff of servants.

THEIR PROSPERITY
His personal fortune was estimated at $50 million in a federal court suit earlier this year.

Pamphlet Case... Sentence Given

Lee Oswald, 22, 495 Magazine Monday was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or serve 30 days in jail on a charge of disturbing the peace by creating a noise.

Oswald was arrested by First District police at 4:35 p.m. Friday in the 10th block at Canal while he was reportedly distributing pamphlets calling for a "Fair Trial" for Oswald.

Police were called to the scene when three Cubans reportedly sought to stop Oswald. Municipal charges against the Cubans for disturbing the peace were dropped in the court.

63

Room 227
199 Broadway
New York 3, N.Y.

Mr. Lee H. Oswald
2703 Mercedes Avenue
Fort Worth, Texas

stores had extra sales clerks on hand
a typical scene on Canal st.

'lets Rush

pollution were listed as greatest. Two boats, one a 35-foot luxury yacht, were tied up at the dock. The establishment included four cars, a softening pool and green room, a bar, a juke box and a staff of waitresses.

RATES BE PROSPEROUS
His personal fortune was estimated at $100 million in a federal court suit earlier this year. He

Pamphlet Case... Sentence Given

Lee Oswald, 22, 601 Magazine, Monday was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or serve 15 days in jail for his charge of disturbing the peace by creating a scene.

Oswald was arrested by First District police at 9:20 p.m. Saturday in the 100 block of Canal street, where he was reportedly distributing pamphlets asking for a "Fair Play for Cuba."

Police were called to the scene when three Cuban reporters approached Oswald. Municipal charges against the Cuban for disturbing the peace were dropped by the court.

HANDS OFF CUBA!

Join the Fair Play for Cuba Committee

NEW ORLEANS CHARTER
MEMBER BRANCH

Free Literature, Lectures

LOCATION:

L. H. OSWALD
4907 MAJAZINE ST
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

EVERYONE WELCOME!

M Mr. Osborne

New Orleans 12, La.

June 4, 1963

Jones Printing Company
CATALOG AND
COMMERCIAL PRINTERS

Phone Jackson 5-2985

TERMS: NET CASH

415 Chret Street

1,000 Cuba Fair Play Committee Circulars $9.50

.50 Sales tax _____

$9.00
4.00

$5.00

Deposit

Abelard & Co.
6-4-63
J. J. Bell

415

To: The Fair Play for Cuba Committee
New Orleans, La.

I wish to join the Committee. Enclosed is my Initiation Fee of $1.00 and dues are $1.00 a month.

I cannot participate as an active member of the Committee, but wish to become a subscriber to writings. Enclosed find $5.00 for one year.

I would like to have a more active part in supporting the cause of FPCO.
Enclosed is my contribution for

Name _____

Address _____

City _____

Zone _____ State _____

416

Mrs. B. L. Oswald sold her mother-in-law got out of the Marine Corps about a month ago, then came to Fort Worth for a brief visit.

think, and said he was going down to New Orleans," the young Mrs. Oswald said.

"He said he wanted to travel a lot and talked about going to Cuba. We said that was a stupid thing to do.
"This is a stupid thing he's doing now, too," she added.
"This is more stupid than that other."

The young Mrs. Oswald said she didn't know her brother-in-law very well — "we don't know each other very good" — but "I sure didn't think he'd do a thing like that." — Available.

According to the report from the American embassy in Moscow, DeGolyer was urged by embassy officials not to sign papers renouncing his American citizenship until he was sure the Russians would accept him.

Oswald himself — who is living at the Metropole Hotel in Moscow — was not available immediately Saturday for comment on his actions.

He is the third American during the last three months to apply for Soviet citizenship while visiting Russia.

Trigula, Pachysphinx

—
—
—

4) $\text{H}_2\text{O} \rightarrow \text{H}_2 + \text{O}_2$

417

"JUST A KID"

Texan in Russia: He Wants to Stay

MOSCOW (AP)—A former Marine from Texas told the American Embassy Saturday he had applied for Russian citizenship.

Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, of Fort Worth placed his passport on the writing desk and said:

The Embassy urged him not to renounce his citizenship until he was sure the Russians would accept him. Orwell is living at the Metropole Hotel.

Two other Americans have applied for Russian citizenship in the past three months while visiting Russia. They are Nicholas Petrou of Hudson Valley Station, N.Y., and Robert W. Webster of Cleveland.

Relatives in Fort Worth expressed surprise.

"He's just a kid," said a brother, R. L. Oswald, who is a milkman. "I don't know of trouble he ever had in the vines or before he went in."

ees Showed Up
DENVER (AP)—Waldemar
Hansen told it, he was as interested in taking snapshots in Arizona desert last week as didn't discover until later that eyeglasses were missing.

Over a month and the New Caledonian developed "He had a lot and James E. Taylor, at whose home Lee Oswald R. L. Oswald. "We said that was his mother, Mrs. Mae, a stupid thing to do. This is a stupid thing he's doing now," Oswald said, adding that he had been staying in his room.

former Marine was described as a lonely boy who liked ticket to death when he paid any attention to

He left the Marines about a year ago, visited Ford Worth and said he was going to return to work for a ship-should be wanted to travel a and talked about going to

Brother's Turn to Keds
Puzzles Ft. Worth Man

¹ L. Overhill, 25, of 7432 Shadewater, older brother of James and Harry Overhill, both of Fort Smith and unclaimed in U. S. passenger list in Monroe Station, said he doesn't believe the younger knows what he is doing.
"Her voice," said Mrs. Overhill, "is like a bell. She has a very good voice. I don't know her last name." She had been married once before.
"I don't know her first name either," said Mr. Overhill.
Mrs. Marguerite Overhill, wife of L. Overhill, 25, of 7432 Shadewater, was born in Monroe Station, and is the mother of the two boys. Her husband, who is a carpenter, has been away from home for some time, so she has charge of the house. She has had a difficult time, as the Indians were bad enough when she got married.

Red Citizen Asks
Ft. Worth Woman
For Help

in the same way as the other two, but it is not so strong. The first is the most powerful, and the second is the second strongest. The third is the third strongest, and so on. The fourth is the fourth strongest, and the fifth is the fifth strongest. The sixth is the sixth strongest, and the seventh is the seventh strongest. The eighth is the eighth strongest, and the ninth is the ninth strongest. The tenth is the tenth strongest, and the eleventh is the eleventh strongest. The twelfth is the twelfth strongest, and the thirteenth is the thirteenth strongest. The fourteenth is the fourteenth strongest, and the fifteenth is the fifteenth strongest. The sixteenth is the sixteenth strongest, and the seventeenth is the seventeenth strongest. The eighteenth is the eighteenth strongest, and the nineteenth is the nineteenth strongest. The twentieth is the twentieth strongest, and the twenty-first is the twenty-first strongest. The twenty-second is the twenty-second strongest, and the twenty-third is the twenty-third strongest. The twenty-fourth is the twenty-fourth strongest, and the twenty-fifth is the twenty-fifth strongest. The twenty-sixth is the twenty-sixth strongest, and the twenty-seventh is the twenty-seventh strongest. The twenty-eighth is the twenty-eighth strongest, and the twenty-ninth is the twenty-ninth strongest. The thirty-first is the thirty-first strongest, and the thirty-second is the thirty-second strongest. The thirty-third is the thirty-third strongest, and the thirty-fourth is the thirty-fourth strongest. The thirty-fifth is the thirty-fifth strongest, and the thirty-sixth is the thirty-sixth strongest. The thirty-seventh is the thirty-seventh strongest, and the thirty-eighth is the thirty-eighth strongest. The thirty-ninth is the thirty-ninth strongest, and the forty-first is the forty-first strongest. The forty-second is the forty-second strongest, and the forty-third is the forty-third strongest. The forty-fourth is the forty-fourth strongest, and the forty-fifth is the forty-fifth strongest. The forty-sixth is the forty-sixth strongest, and the forty-seventh is the forty-seventh strongest. The forty-eighth is the forty-eighth strongest, and the forty-ninth is the forty-ninth strongest. The fifty-first is the fifty-first strongest, and the fifty-second is the fifty-second strongest. The fifty-third is the fifty-third strongest, and the fifty-fourth is the fifty-fourth strongest. The fifty-fifth is the fifty-fifth strongest, and the fifty-sixth is the fifty-sixth strongest. The fifty-seventh is the fifty-seventh strongest, and the fifty-eighth is the fifty-eighth strongest. The fifty-ninth is the fifty-ninth strongest, and the sixty-first is the sixty-first strongest. The sixty-second is the sixty-second strongest, and the sixty-third is the sixty-third strongest. The sixty-fourth is the sixty-fourth strongest, and the sixty-fifth is the sixty-fifth strongest. The sixty-sixth is the sixty-sixth strongest, and the sixty-seven is the sixty-seven strongest. The sixty-eight is the sixty-eight strongest, and the sixty-nine is the sixty-nine strongest. The seventy-first is the seventy-first strongest, and the seventy-second is the seventy-second strongest. The seventy-third is the seventy-third strongest, and the seventy-fourth is the seventy-fourth strongest. The seventy-five is the seventy-five strongest, and the seventy-six is the seventy-six strongest. The seventy-seven is the seventy-seven strongest, and the seventy-eight is the seventy-eight strongest. The seventy-nine is the seventy-nine strongest, and the eighty-one is the eighty-one strongest. The eighty-two is the eighty-two strongest, and the eighty-three is the eighty-three strongest. The eighty-four is the eighty-four strongest, and the eighty-five is the eighty-five strongest. The eighty-six is the eighty-six strongest, and the eighty-seven is the eighty-seven strongest. The eighty-eight is the eighty-eight strongest, and the eighty-nine is the eighty-nine strongest. The ninety-first is the ninety-first strongest, and the ninety-second is the ninety-second strongest. The ninety-third is the ninety-third strongest, and the ninety-fourth is the ninety-fourth strongest. The ninety-five is the ninety-five strongest, and the ninety-six is the ninety-six strongest. The ninety-seven is the ninety-seven strongest, and the ninety-eight is the ninety-eight strongest. The ninety-nine is the ninety-nine strongest, and the one-hundred is the one-hundred strongest.

LARGEST CIRCULATION
IN TEXAS—
DAILY AND SUNDAY
OVER
250,000 COMBINED DAILY

SEVENTY-NINTH YEAR, NO. 277

FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM

A Fort Worth Owned Newspaper

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

★ Where the West Begins

SATURDAY

Oct-31

Ft. Worth Man Asks Red Citizenship

Passport Turned in
At Moscow

Thursday Morning, January 7, 1903

City Mother Gets Note From Russia

BY JACK DOOGAN
Associated Press
Harvey Oswald, accused assassin from T-33 Worth in Moscow, left in his American passport but was asked for Soviet citizenship Saturday morning.
Oswald, whose mother and wife live here, had been due to receive his discharge, returning to the U.S. by air, via Paris, on Dec. 10. He telephoned his service records, stepped down from his passenger plane and said:
"I have made up my mind. I'm through."
His mother is Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, a widow, 50, who lived at 1015 Central Rd., and about two years ago had a brother, H. L. Oswald, live at 1015 Devonshire St., O'Farrell's decision, even though he was in France at the time.
Oswald's return to the U.S. was a surprise to his family here.

NEW YORK
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER
12, 1935

• 40 •

recommendations to Congress, it now seems virtually certain that the President will not ask for the proposed supplemental appropriation of $400,000,000 for this fiscal year; and he request for next year will be far below what the Cooper committee proposed.

EX-MARINE REQUESTS SOVIET CITIZENSHIP

MOSCOW, Oct. 31 (AP)—A former marine from Texas told the United States Embassy today that he had applied for Soviet citizenship.

The embassy suggested that he withhold sending papers concerning his citizenship until he was sure the Soviet Union would accept him.

Mr. Oswald is the third American in recent months to apply for Soviet citizenship. The previous arrivals are Maurice Nicholas Petrelli of Valley Stream, L. I., and a recently released man, who changed his name and decided to keep his United States citizenship. Robert Webster of Cleveland, Ohio, completed formalities for taking Soviet citizenship last week.

The rest of this dispatch was held in censorship.
Mr. Gowald's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Gowald, lives at Fort Worth. His sister-in-law, Mrs. R. L. Gowald of Fort Worth, said he got out of the Marines about a month ago and returned to Fort Worth in secret.

212

MORE ABOUT CITY YOUTH DEFECS

Mother Not Disappointed in Son for His Action

Russia Rejects Fort Worth Man's Bid

Russia has rejected Fort Worth's Lee Harvey Oswald. His mother hasn't.

Oswald, a Marxist who applied for Soviet citizenship, Moscow, the U.S.S.R., turned him down.

But he indicated he will accept an invitation to live there freely on a "friendly basis."

In Fort Worth, his 85-year-old mother described her son as an "average boy with above average intelligence" who perhaps wanted more out of life than he was getting.

Lee in Moscow, she said, had a poverty-stricken childhood prompted him to take up Marxist ideals.

THE MOTHER, Mrs. Margaretta Oswald told THE PRESS her son's childhood had not been poverty-stricken but middle-class. "We lived from paycheck to paycheck," she said.

"Like most Americans, we lived from paycheck to paycheck," she said.

The mother is the widow of a World War I combat veteran who died before Mrs. Oswald gave birth to Lee. The father, also named Lee, was an insurance man at the time of Lee's birth.

Lee's mother said he is a graduate of Arlington Heights High, who joined the Marines when he was 17. When he was released from the service five months ago he had saved $100. There is a hold for his trip to Russia where he announced on Oct. 22 that he was renouncing his American citizenship.

MRS. OSWALD said her son did well at school because he was brighter than his mother's world of school because she died when he was 10.

He liked chess and reading books, she said.

"I would much rather have seen the sort of headlines that are appearing now than headlines that Lee has been captured or beaten to death or dead or whatever like that," she said.

"She never gave me any trouble in history and never added." She was always interested in history and news. When he was still in grammar school, he ran so delighted to tell me the English Queen Elizabeth had given birth to a son. That's the sort of boy he was," she said.

IN MOSCOW, Lee told United Press International: "I am my mother's only son. I work, always with less than we could afford. I am a Marine Corps observer. An American military unit in Moscow, Correll observed, would call important.

"I work for the U.S. and I am forced to live in the U.S. and be a communist. I am determined to remain a communist. I am determined to remain a communist," he explained.

He said he began his study of Communism when he was 15. Karl Marx, he said, "The Capital" really turned him to Communism.

His mother said she was not disappointed with her son's choice. "He is something else thought out for himself. He is not selfish. He has no desire to serve. He is capable of making his own decisions," she said.

"It's his privilege to make his own decisions. That's what we present to the United States and I think that people have a right to make decisions," she said.

BEST INDICATED the decision was a political and not a personal one, she confirmed that she has no political beliefs. "I never thought much about those things," she said.

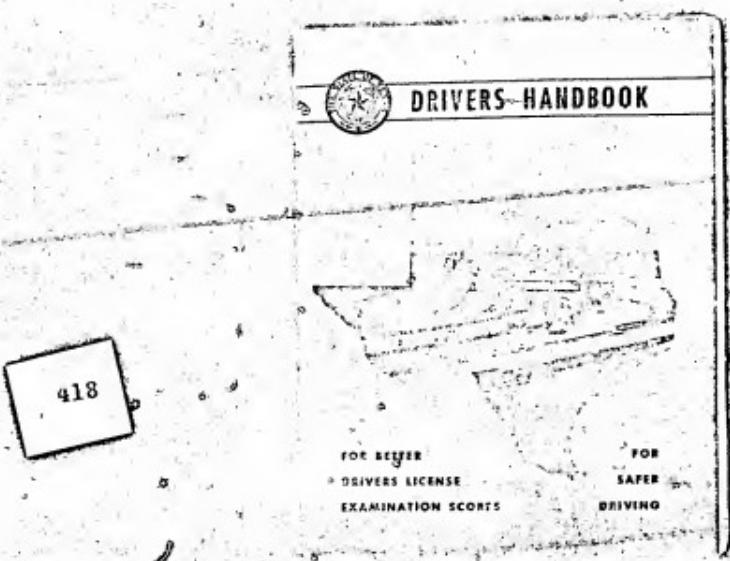

Lee, 23, a young man, Lee appeared to carefully scrutinization. "Mother is not disappointed in her son and she is trying to encourage her son to do the same thing," she said.

His mother said she is under care of Dr. John C. Hanes, 60, who is trying to encourage her son to do the same thing.

His mother said she is under care of Dr. John C. Hanes, 60, who is trying to encourage her son to do the same thing.

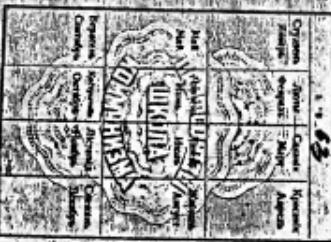

417

614

U. S. 73

419

419

419

419

419